WHY A LIBERTY LOAN?

Many People Wish to Know the Reason Therefor.

Many thousands of America's loyal, well-meaning and worthy citizens do not quite understand the reason for these liberty loans. All their lives they have regarded the United States as the richest, the most prosperous and greatest nation on earth. To them it has been a land of peace and plenty, "the home of the free and the land of the brave." In a word, "God's country."

And now that a war has come eight or ten thousand miles away, it seems inconceivable that it should be necessary for a nation of such boundless resources to be asking its citizenry without regard to wealth or station to contribute to the support of the armies it must send far afield.

America, like its people has been prodigal of its riches. Probably the less said of the past extravagance of national government, the better. You are largely responsible, for you have seen the acts of your representatives at Washington protest.

But the fact is that of the trifle more than a billion dollars of revenues annually, nothing has been saved. No surplus has accumulated in the treasury. And the rainy day has come for the nation as it comes for its individuals.

Now we need $20,000,000 for this first year of war. It will go for the equipping of the navy and the arming of land forces; for munitions of war and big and little guns; for army and navy pay; for the purchase and forwarding of the tremendous food supplies necessary for the army support, and for army insurance to support stricken families.

Meantime our normal sources of revenue are interrupted and our expense of government increased. We must have about $19,500,000, 000 more ready cash this year than last.

Both Perrysburg banks will supply the bonds without charge for their services.

BUMPER CROPS OF 1917

High Prices Make the Big Yield a Golden Harvest.

The area on all crops herein reported is taken from the assessors' returns on estimated acres for the harvest of 1917.

Each week, for a number of weeks previous to the harvest, wheat conditions gradually improved, and when the machines were placed in the fields, the very general report was that the grain was yielding better than expected, and this fact is now borne out by the results of the threshing as indicated in this report. The quality of the grain is excellent, being reported at 102 per cent compared with an average.

The present wheat crop is the largest in the history of the state as to average yield per acre, as was predicted in last report it would be, and is only exceeded in total bushels produced by the years 1880, 1891, 1893 and 1894. The facts with regard to values tell quite a different story. The big crop of 1880 showed an average price of one dollar and sixteen cents per bushel, or a total value of fifty six million, three hundred and fifty six dollars. The present large wheat crop, figured at two dollars and six cents per bushel, has a total value of $88,189,397, an increase in value over the 1880 crop of $31,882,641.

Wheat seeding well advanced, but owing to the late cutting of corn the work is somewhat retarded. Rain is needed badly.

The oats crop is the largest the state has ever produced, having a total production of 69,354,811 bushels, with an average production per acre of 45 bushels. Quality compared with an average 101 per cent.

Barley and rye show a good average production per acre, and also lead in the state's production of these crops. The quality is excellent, barley being reported at 97 per cent compared with an average, and rye 99 per cent.

The corn prospects show an increase of two points since report of August 1, being estimated at 94 per cent compared with an average, which should produce an average of 33 bushels per acre. From assessors returns, the estimated area planted to corn is 3,387,459 acres, which should produce approximately 111,786,147 bushels, being about six million bushels short of a ten-year average. Corn cutting began later than usual, and a great area is still uncut. September frosts did considerable damage to corn in the small valleys, there being much that is soft and unmerchantable.

The potato crop is being reported at 180 per cent compared with last year, which should produce an average of 83 bushels per acre, or a total production of approximately 9,000,000 bushels.

Apple prospects compared with last year 46 per cent.

Hog cholera reported from some sections. Help scarce.

SCHOOL NOTES

Items Concerning Various Departments of the Public Schools

High School.

A "Pep" meeting was held last Friday afternoon at which speeches were made by different members of the faculty, members of the football team, other students and by Frank Fuller, who is now coaching the team. The officers elected for the Athletic Association are Arthur McIntosh, president; Arthur Reape, vice president; Miss Abt, secretary; Mr. Nietz, treasurer; Frank Fuller, ex-member. A new name has been given to "Pep"—"Spizerinetum."

The football team was disappointed last week when Bradner cancelled the game. Because of sickness, James Wiser, our star fullback, has been unable to practice, but he will be in shape for the next game. The next game will be with Maumee at Maumee. Many should accompany the team with their "Spizerinetum" and help Perrysburg win.

The Phi Sigma Literature Society will give a program on Friday at 1:45. Everyone is welcome.

Eighth Grade.

The eighth grade literary program given Monday was very good. The solos, duets and readings were fine. The song, "Hawaiian Dreams," sung by Mary Fuller, Gertrude Witzler and Claris Hoffman, accompanied by Helen Bayers on the piano and Adrian Stephens on the violin, was appreciated by all.

Third Grade.

Gertrude Baddoe has withdrawn from the third grade and is now attending school in Toledo. The children have been cutting paper vegetables and in this way learn the shapes of them.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative. These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well."

AGRICULTURAL NOTES

Prepared for the Journal by Ohio Experiment Station.

Few farm practices pay better for the labor expended than selecting seed corn in the field when the crop is ready to go in the shock. Yields indicate that an average increase of three and one-half bushels per acre is obtained. As it takes but six bushels to plant from 35 to 40 acres of corn and a man can select that much seed in a day, it will be seen that, at the present price of corn, no cornfield is too small to warrant neglect of this matter. Although the farmer is busy in the fall, he is usually busier in the spring, when crib selection is resorted to.

Now is the time for every hen to proclaim whether she is doing her bit or is a slacker. It will not pay to feed five cent corn to loafing hens.

Many of the old hens should be sold within the next few weeks. They will be non-producers and expensive feeders. Breeding from them will produce poor pullets.

Hens that should go to market are: (1) Those with bright colored legs; (2) those with combs that are small, dry, hard and rough to the touch; (3) those that are molting early.

The good hens exhibit the following characteristics: (1) The combs are of good size, and are soft and pliable. (2) The shanks are pale due to the fact that the pigment is drawn out of the legs during egg production. (3) No signs of molting were shown up to September 15.

Are you interested in having fresh vegetables in winter from your own garden? A circular telling of different ways of storing vegetables has been issued by the College of Agriculture. A copy may be had while the supply lasts on application to the Agricultural College Extension Service, Columbus, Ohio.

The annual fall farmers' institute workers' conference and normal will be held at the College of Agriculture at Columbus from October 15 to 19. The morning sessions will be given over to a study period in charge of the heads of the various departments of the College of Agriculture. The afternoon sessions will be of an inspirational nature.

A special effort will be made to make the institutes inspirational this season.

If your children are subject to croup get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when the attack comes on be careful to follow the plain printed directions. You will be surprised at the quick relief which it affords.

GLARING HEADLIGHTS

Every Motorist Should Comply With Laws Regulating Lights.

The headlight situation is one that should concern every motorist. The State Law and City Ordinances make it a misdemeanor to have glaring headlights, the beams or rays of which are not within a certain distance above the ground.

Some of our members have complied with the law with a view of assisting in enforcing ordinances that mean much to the enjoyment of night driving in addition to proving a safe-guard to pedestrians and other highway users. With the many violations it will merely be a question of time before the police take the matter in hand and begin a crusade of wholesale arrests. Why not comply with the law before such action takes place?

State after state is getting into line to secure proper headlight legislation and the motorist can do much towards making the police regard the motoring fraternity in a kinder light. You can assist if you will equip your headlight in a manner that will eliminate you as a violator. Do it today and tonight you will have added much to your driving pleasure, your safety as well as to show a willingness to be courteous to the other road users.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."
